
Introduced by Senator Dunn

February 22, 2005

An act to amend Section 3484 of the Civil Code, relating to nuisance.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 894, as introduced, Dunn. Nuisance: remedies.

Existing law provides that the abatement of a nuisance does not prejudice the right of any person to recover damages for its past existence.

This bill would further specify that the abatement of a nuisance does not prejudice the right of any person to seek an injunction to prevent a recurrence or future occurrence of that activity.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 3484 of the Civil Code is amended to
2 read:
3 3484. The abatement of a nuisance does not prejudice the 4 right of any person to recover damages for its past existence or to
5 seek an injunction to prevent a recurrence or future occurrence
6 of that activity.
